Abstract

Harley Orrin Stagers, Sr. (August 3, 1907-August 20, 1991) was a Democratic U.S. Representative from West Virginia (2nd District) from 1949 to 1981.

Biography

Harley Orrin Stagers, Sr. was born August 3, 1907 on a farm outside of Keyser, West Virginia. Mr. Stagers attended public school in Mineral County, West Virginia. During his school years, Mr. Stagers worked a variety of jobs in the evenings and during summer breaks. These included working in a silk mill, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, in wheat fields throughout the Midwest, and in a rubber factory in Ohio. Harley Stagers received a BA degree from Emory and Henry College in 1931 and went on to carry out graduate work at Duke University. He was later awarded an honorary Doctor of Law Degree from Davis and Elkins College, West Virginia University, and West Virginia Wesleyan College. He also received an honorary Doctor of Science Degree from West Virginia School of Osteopathic Medicine.

Prior to his career in public service, Harley Stagers taught science and coached for a Virginia high school and later coached football at Potomac State College in Keyser. Mr. Stagers was elected Sheriff of Mineral County in 1937 and served in that position until 1941. Mr. Stagers also held the position of Right of War Agent for the West Virginia State Road Commission in 1941 and became the West Virginia State Director for the US Office of Government Reports in 1942. During World War II, Harley Stagers served as a navigator in the US Naval Air Corps, rising to the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

In 1948, Harley Stagers was elected as a Democrat to the United States House of Representatives, serving West Virginia's 2nd District. He would be reelected to 15 terms in Congress, serving a total of 32 years from 1949-1981. Congressman Stagers served as an Assistant Whip in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1955 to 1977 and served on the House Committee of Veterans Affairs, Post Office and Civil Service, and the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committees. In 1966, Congressman Stagers was elected chairman of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. He led the committee through the next 15 years until his retirement in 1981.

Congressman Stagers was credited by many economists for saving the declining railroad industry in the United States through the passage of the Stagers Rail Act in 1980, which allowed for wide-scale deregulation of railroads. He is also credited with preserving national railroad passenger services and improving the working conditions of railroad employees.

Congressman Staggers was active in his church and home community of Keyser, West Virginia. He taught Sunday School as a member of the United Methodist Church. He held the position of President of the West Virginia State Moose Association and District Governor of the West Virginia Lions Clubs. Congressman Staggers was also a member of many community groups such as the American Legion, VFW, Mineral County Chamber of Commerce, and the West Virginia Farm Bureau. Congressman Staggers died at the age of 84 on August 20, 1991 of congestive heart and respiratory failure at Sacred Heart Hospital in Cumberland, Maryland. Congressman Staggers, Sr. was married to Mary Veronica Casey Staggers (July 3, 1915 – May 4, 2000) and had four daughters and two sons. Harley O. Staggers, Jr. served five terms in the United States House of Representatives from 1983 to 1993 (his papers are also housed at the Byrd CLS) and his daughter Margaret Ann Staggers has served in the West Virginia House of Delegates since 2007.

Scope and Content Note

The Harley O. Staggers, Sr. Congressional papers consists of five series: Correspondence, Working Papers, Memorabilia (TBA), Photographs, and Audio/Visual (TBA). The collection presents strong research opportunities for the details of Mr. Staggers, general correspondence in his capacity as a Representative, his campaigning efforts, and his work on the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

The Correspondence series (1949-1980) is arranged first by date range into three main subseries: 1949-1976, 1977-1978, and 1979-1980. These are further categorized by the correspondent's name and by subject within each subseries. The correspondence includes both issue mail and casework. This series also contains VIP, personal, and family correspondence.

The Working Papers series (1930-1987) documents several areas of Staggers' public life: campaigns, files on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee from the period when Staggers served as Chairman, legislative acts by subject, voting records, administrative records from his office, records regarding his domestic and international travel, his meetings throughout West Virginia, and copies of his speeches.

The Photograph series (1916-2002) contains historic photographic records spanning the entire life and career of Congressman Harley O. Staggers, Sr. as well as his family and staff members. The collection includes over 900 photographs which have been digitized. A sampling of this collection is available in the Photograph Collections on the Byrd Center's website. The bulk of the photographs are original, some including signatures. The collection also contains some negatives, as noted in the description field.

The Press Files series (1930-1983) contains news clippings, periodicals, photographs, and other media documenting Congressman Staggers' congressional career and personal life as conveyed to and covered by the press. The series contains both loose press files and clippings scrapbooks compiled by Congressman Staggers' staff. The collection is arranged chronologically with some topical folders included.

Harley O. Staggars, Sr. Congressional Papers

Title: Press Files Date: 1930-1983

Level: Subseries, Archival

Scope & Content: The Harley O. Staggars, Sr. Press Series contains news clippings, periodicals, photographs, and other media documenting Congressman Staggars' congressional career and personal life as conveyed to and covered by the press. The series contains press coverage of specific topics and issues addressed by Staggars throughout his 32 years in the U.S. House of Representatives. The collection spans Stagger's professional life, beginning with his college days in the 1920's and ending with his retirement from Congress in the 1980's.

This series contains both loose press files and clippings scrapbooks put together by Staggars' staff. The loose press files are arranged in two groups, first chronologically and then alphabetically by topic. The scrapbooks are arranged chronologically. The bulk of this collection contains materials from 1966 through 1981, coinciding with Congressman Staggars' tenure as Chairman of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.
